To Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly

"The price of freedom is eternal vigilance" against those who see our will and our innate rights as a hindrance that must be overcome. So that they may subjugate us under their domination.

We must always make it clear to all that we will not tolerate those who try to decrease our freedom, and take away our choices.

We must fight those who corrupt and circumvent the process of law. And do so with impunity, as if they are beyond the reach of the justice. And the eyes of the people, that the law proclaims to serve.

The threat that Microsoft poses, is not confined to within a single nation's border. Rather Microsoft is aiming to control, the links that cross these borders, and the very connections that bind one human being with another.

It is thus vital to push forward with, vigorous prosecution of Microsoft. Regardless of the weakness of some in the challenge posed in the defense of democracy.
